

Online Faculty Opportunities

About Online Faculty Opportunities

National American University's corps of online faculty represents a variety of professional disciplines including accounting, business, criminal justice, healthcare billing and coding, healthcare management, information technology, nursing, and general education courses serving students from around the world. NAU faculty incorporate their real-world expertise into the student learning experience to provide students the skills they need to be successful in the workforce. In addition to prior online teaching experience, NAU requires online faculty to possess the following qualifications:

For Major and Emphasis Areas in Accounting, Business, Criminal Justice, Information Technology, and Healthcare Management - a minimum of a master's degree from a regionally accredited university in the field of assignment with discipline appropriate professional certifications (if applicable); an earned doctorate is strongly preferred; and five or more years of professional experience in work directly related to the assigned teaching responsibilities.

For General Education Courses – a minimum of a master's degree in the field of assignment from a regionally accredited university, an earned doctorate is strongly preferred, with at least eighteen semester hours of course work successfully completed at the graduate level in the area of assigned teaching responsibilities.

For Health Information Technology and Healthcare Billing & Coding – a minimum of a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited university, a master's degree is preferred, and one or more of the following certifications required: RHIT, RHIA, CCS, CCS-P, with three to five years of professional experience in work directly related to the assigned teaching responsibilities.

For Online RN to BSN – a minimum of a master's degree in nursing and current/eligible for RN licensure in South Dakota required, an earned doctorate in nursing or related field is strongly preferred. Two years of college level teaching in nursing, online instruction is preferred.

At the present time, NAU Online is only extending new faculty employment opportunities to candidates who reside in the following states:
