Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. If a student misses two consecutive weeks of classes without contacting the instructor, he/she may be administratively dropped from the course. Faculty may implement grade adjustments based on the university's attendance policy. Each faculty member's requirements for make-up work, if applicable, are stated in the course syllabus.

Attendance is taken each week in all classes. Students enrolled in online classes are counted as present if they successfully log into each course within the university's learner management system. Additional information about attendance in online classes can be found on Page 36.

Students who have attended past the first 60 percent of each class, as published in the academic calendar, will not be dropped for non-attendance.

- WF Withdrawal-Fail (applies to the school of nursing). The student voluntarily withdrew from the course or was dropped from the course before completing 60 percent of the academic term. The student was earning a failing grade in the course at the time of withdrawal. This grade has no bearing on the grade point average but may affect eligibility for financial aid.

Students withdrawing before the end of the add/drop period will have the course removed from their transcript and tuition will not be charged. Students who officially withdraw after the end of the add/drop period but before 60 percent of the academic term has elapsed will receive a "W" on their transcripts. The student's grade point average will not be affected by the "W" grade on the transcript, however the credits will count toward cumulative credits attempted.

Students who have completed more than 60 percent of the academic term may not be withdrawn from a course. Please refer to the academic calendar for withdrawal deadlines for each academic term. For additional nursing program withdrawal procedures, please refer to the school of nursing student handbook.
