National American University, Houston Campus, has various openings for Mathematics and Microeconomics positions to teach the following courses:

MA1000 – Mathematics Demystified – 4.5 credits

- Mathematics-related graduate degree with 18 or more graduate semester credits in college-level mathematics course work, or a graduate degree in another discipline/field with 18 or more graduate semester credits in math

EC2100 – Microeconomics – 4.5 credits

- Doctorally qualified to teach economics courses according to the IACBE definition (see Appendix A)

- Be A.B.D. (has completed all course work required for a PhD or DBA in business, passed the general comprehensive examinations, but has not completed a dissertation) with a major, minor, or concentration in the economics area

- Hold a master’s degree in a business-related field and have five or more years of professional and management experience in economics. Also, must have extensive and substantial documented successful teaching experience in the area of assigned teaching responsibility, and demonstrate involvement in meaningful research and/or programs for the enhancement of pedagogical (or andragogical) skills

- Hold a Master of Business Administration degree and have five or more years of professional and management experience. Also, must have extensive and substantial documented successful teaching experience in the area of assigned teaching responsibility, and demonstrate involvement in meaningful research and/or programs for the enhancement of pedagogical (or andragogical) skills

To apply, submit an employment application, (click here for application) resume, and letter of interest to:
Program Coordinator for Medical Assisting
11511 Katy Freeway Ste 200
Houston, TX 77079
mailto:riskander@national.edu or fax to 281-670-1305

We are accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association, Chicago, Illinois | www.ncahlc.org